

CARROLLTON.

Carrollton, July 30.—Miss Ola Morgan is visiting her cousin at Boston, Mass.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Duval died Sunday and was buried Tuesday afternoon in Grandview cemetery, Rev. C. W. Harshman conducting the services.

C. S. Semple and family spent Sunday at the home of his sister in Monroe township.

Mrs. Ella Grimes, of Canton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dora Ray, of Washington township.

An automobile party from Pittsburg broke down near here, Tuesday, and after making temporary repairs came to town. After the necessary repairs were made they continued their journey.

Mrs. J. M. Kall is visiting in Perry township.

Hiram Scott, the baseball sage of Harrison township, was in town on Tuesday.

William Arbaugh, of Leesville, was in town on Tuesday.

Mrs. Lash Thomas is visiting friends in Cameron, W. Va.

Poolie & McLaughlin are moving into their new store room on North Lisbon street.

At the judicial convention held in Carrollton the following delegates and alternates were chosen to represent Carroll county in the convention at Warren, on August 27, to nominate a circuit judge: Delegates, F. W. McCoy, R. E. McDonald and H. J. Beckley; alternates, I. H. Blythe, W. L. Handley, F. L. Kreig and Will Coleman. The delegates are unopposed, and the delegates present are to cast the vote of the county.

George M. Hardesty, of Alliance, is at home for a few days' visit.

Abbe Baker, of Amsterdam, was visiting here a few days this week.

Miss Verna McCoy left Monday for Cadiz to visit Mr. and Mrs. C. O. F. Brown.

Miss Verne Stackhouse, one of the operators in the local Bell central, is taking her annual two weeks' vacation. She will visit at Malvern, Bergholz and Canton.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Caton, of Cleveland, are guests of her brother, David McKeown.

D. H. Hunter was in Carrollton on business on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Snowden, of Pittsburg, who spent the past month at the home of his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Morrison, near town, have returned home.

I. B. Woods, of near Dell Roy, was a Carrollton visitor on Monday.

W. H. Ray was at Cleveland over Sunday, a guest of his son, Morrison Ray. He also visited his daughter, Gertrude, who is recovering from an operation in Charity hospital.

J. H. Harper, John Purcell, Ed Coleman, J. M. Price, Mrs. J. M. Kall, Mrs. J. V. Lawler and Mrs. F. W. McCoy were Canton visitors Saturday and Sunday.

Harry Beadle, wife and daughter, of Massillon, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Beadle.

Mrs. Armstrong Ashbrook, of Canton, was a guest of her father, Dr. George Scott, and sister, Miss Delia, over Sunday.

Charles Karns, of Canton, spent Sunday at the home of his father, M. L. Karns.

Levi Miller was overcome by the heat on the street Saturday evening, and was taken to his home near town.

Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, of McKeesport, Pa., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor.

Carrollton won a very interesting and well played game of ball at East Springfield, on Saturday. Kerr and Ollie McConnell pitched for Carrollton and allowed seven hits, while Carrollton got eight hits off Crawford, of Springfield.

The high school team were shut out by the Mechanicstown team at the Lee township harvest home picnic at Harlem Springs, last Saturday.

Col. O. O. Amos was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. J. C. Shull and Miss Mary Wiggins, of the Park Hotel, took in the Lee township harvest home picnic at Harlem Springs on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wagner, former Carrolltonians, have moved from East Liverpool to Perryville, Ashland county, where Mr. Wagner is employed at a pumping station along the Pennsylvania Lines.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Downs and son, of Cleveland, were guests of his brother, B. I. Downs, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shultz and family were Canton visitors Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Alice Ramsey and son, Paul, of Alliance, were guests of her sister, Mrs. T. M. Hemming, this week.

Misses Cook and Cal Coleman visited their sisters, Mrs. G. A. Swineford and Mrs. Kate Hill, at Canton over Sunday.

Jay Long, the Tabor postmaster, was in town on Tuesday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. S. Q. Morrow on Tuesday.

Fred Fiedler, of New Philadelphia, is here this week in the interests of Leach & Dougherty, the Canton firm which is conducting immigration excursion to Wyoming.

Rev. H. M. Rider and daughter, Miss Florence, of Jewett, are visiting in Carrollton this week.

Joseph Courtwright is again confined to his home with a sore foot, which is causing him considerable pain.

Thomas G. Donaldson, of Scroggsfield, was in town on business on Tuesday.

A. E. Charles and Frank Mitzel will leave Thursday afternoon for Moores, N. Y., where they will sing at the annual meeting of the Holiness people.

W. C. Jayred was in town on Tuesday.

Mrs. John Johnson and daughter, Maxine, of Canton, are visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Dunlap.

Mrs. Frank Green and son, Harry, of Perry township, were guests of her sister, Mrs. J. T. Myers, Sunday.

Mrs. Green went to Alliance on Monday to visit her two sisters in that city.

NAVARRE.

Navarre, July 30.—The school board met Wednesday night and adopted a book of rules and a course of study for the coming year. No teacher was hired.

The Evangelical Sunday school picnic at Tuscarora Park, New Philadelphia, Thursday. They left on a special at 9 o'clock. About 200 were present and had a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. J. J. Klepp and Mrs. Keyser, of Indiana; Mrs. Peter Luke, of Farmertown; Mrs. J. J. Munk and daughter, Mrs. Samuel Douglas and two sons, of New Philadelphia, spent Wednesday with their cousin, B. B. Luke.

John Deffen, while shooting frogs at Wild Cat Basin, accidentally shot himself in the foot. He is getting along very well.

Manuel Linsmaster, of Jersey City, New Jersey, is in town visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Helen Case has returned to her home in Loudonville, after a week's visit with friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Bessie Aungst, of Canton, was in town, Wednesday.

Arden Whisler is sick.

Rev. J. D. Downey and wife and Norma Downey have returned home, after a four weeks' visit with their daughter, Mrs. Rev. Baker, of Converse, Ind.; also friends in Roanoke, Huntington and Marion.

Mrs. Frank Chambers and Mrs. M. Wise, of Canton, spent the first of the week with Mrs. Robert Hall.

Miss Jennie Martin, of Beach City, is visiting friends here.

LeRoy Foster, of Columbus, spent the first of the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Foster, here.

Louis Zgowski returned to Barberton, after an illness of two weeks here. He is much better.

Miss Mary Mummert, of Akron, is spending her vacation with her parents here.

The Misses Etta V. Hermena Brimcamp and Hazel Watt will leave Monday for Brazil, Indiana, where they will visit relatives for several weeks.

An operation was performed on Mrs. J. B. McFarren, Wednesday, for lung trouble.

Miss Bessie Thomas is visiting friends in Canal Dover and New Philadelphia for several weeks.

Edna Garver will spend Saturday and Sunday with Victor Mercier in Cleveland.

GREENTOWN.

Greentown, July 30.—The funeral services for Alfred Essig, who was killed by a shifting engine at Alliance, Tuesday night, will be conducted at the home of his sister, Mrs. Lee Miller, at Aultman, by Rev. Kinsley, of the Methodist Episcopal church, Friday morning at 9:30, and the interment will be made at the Snyder cemetery. Mr. Essig met his death by stepping out of the way of one engine into the way of another at 10 o'clock Tuesday night. He was an electrician by trade and 45 years of age. He has three brothers, Clement, Solomon and Dallas, and one sister, Sarah, living in Canton, one brother, Levi, living at Fairhope, besides Mrs. Lee Miller, of Aultman.

Frank J. Cook, of Douglas, Ariz., and Miss Nettie M. Miller, of Aultman, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, by Rev. Kinsley. After a week of visiting among friends Mr. and Mrs. Cook will leave for their future home in Douglas, Arizona.

Mrs. Cook is a very popular young lady, a member of the church and one of the Queen Esther circle of the Methodist church at Greentown.

Misses Maud Myers and Clara Kissinger and Messrs. Powell and Bishop made up a fishing party, Tuesday.

The Wise and Dickerhoff reunion will be held at Highland Park, Saturday, August 8. All friends are expected to come and keep up the usual good time.

The postoffice building is being painted, making a marked improvement.

Mrs. Charles Wise is reported quite ill. Medical aid has been summoned from Akron.

Absalom Beall returned Wednesday from Wheeling, W. Va., with Mrs. Beall, where Mr. and Mrs. Beall had been in the hospital. She is much improved, after two severe operations for gall stones.

PILOT KNOB.

Pilot Knob, July 31.—The young folks of this vicinity, together with a few invited friends had a very pleasant time, last Friday evening, on the school lawn. Games were played during the evening. Cake and lemonade was served.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Immel and family spent Sunday in Canton.

Miss Ida and Oscar Burke spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Snyder, of Paris.

Miss Laura Clapper is visiting with friends at Robertsville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cole spent Sunday at M. H. Hahn's.

Misses Minnie, Nellie and Eva Mitter spent Saturday and Sunday in Canton.

Relatives from Alabama were entertained at George Fulton's, last week. The most of the oats is out through this vicinity, and the hum of the threshing machine is heard quite frequently.

Miss Marguerite Shaffer, of Canton, is spending this week at E. E. Shaffer's.

MILLERSBURG.

Millersburg, July 30.—The farmers' and business men's excursion to Meyer's Lake near Canton today was an immense affair. It started at Glenmont, 14 miles south of here, on the C. & C. railroad, and took in Killbuck, Millersburg, Holmesville, Fredericksburg and Apple Creek and these towns and surrounding country was stripped nearly of its population for the day.

The Democratic county executive committee have selected the following officers: Chairman, W. F. Garver; vice chairman, John Burke; secretary, Charles Larimer; treasurer, L. G. Barton. The committee at once got in close touch with the state committee and put in requests for speakers as soon as the campaign opens. If the campaign opens at Akron a record breaking crowd of howling Democrats will attend from Holmes county.

NEW CHAMBERSBURG.

New Chambersburg, July 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Guthrie were in Rochester, Monday.

Mrs. Frank Ehrhart is seriously ill. Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mardis, a daughter, Wednesday morning.

Grace Clark has gone to Bergholz to visit with her aunt.

Jefferson Milbourn is recovering slowly.

Bellefontaine—Leo Riddle has sued his mother-in-law, Mrs. Susan Harr, for $1000 damages, claiming she alienated the affections of his wife.

NEW ALEXANDER.

New Alexander, July 31.—Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Scrawen, of Alliance, have returned home after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dingledy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Sanor and children and Miss Maggie Camp and Mrs. Sallie Kennedy and daughter, Myrtle, of Bayard, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Reamer.

Misses Amanda Greenison and Erma Pieren returned home Tuesday after spending several days with friends in Cleveland and Alliance.

Mrs. George Reamer and daughter called in Hanoverton, Wednesday.

Miss Dora Barnes, who is employed in Alliance, is the guest of her aunt, Amanda Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. George Heitzman, of Alliance, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Zora Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sanor spent Sunday with their sister near Alliance.

Cecil McDonald, of Pittsburg, is the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Louisa Williston.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Conser were in Salem, Saturday.

John Senevel and Frank Conser were in Hanoverton, Monday.

James Liber and John Conser were to Belmont, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glass, of Salem, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glass.

Mrs. Emory Wickersham and two daughters called on Mrs. Laura Emmons, Saturday.

Mrs. Jacob Temple spent Sunday and Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Maud Smith, of Hanoverton.

Mrs. Eli Barnes and son, of Alliance, visited Mrs. Zora Barnes, Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Tubbs, of Ashtabula, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Louisa Knight.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherley, of Cleveland, are the guests of her sister, Mrs. Mary Pilmer.

Mrs. Esther Senevel and son, of Lake, are the guests of Mrs. Frank Emmons.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dingledy and Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Scrawen spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Werner, near Adair.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lotz spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Lottie Redman, near Onelda.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reamer and son, Paul, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Mary Lee, of East Rochester.

Carrie Barnes was at East Rochester, Saturday.

Walter Knight, of Salem, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Liza Knight.

Mrs. John Dingledy was in Moultrie, Wednesday.

Daniel Conser, of Sebring, spent Tuesday with James Crist.

William Vanpelt was in Sebring last week.

Corwin Vanpelt, who has been the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Vanpelt, returned to Cleveland, Monday.

The sad news reached our village Saturday night that Mrs. Ada Weurtz had died Saturday afternoon at her home in Cleveland of tuberculosis.

Mrs. Weurtz was born in Richmond, Iowa, 28 years ago, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Senevel. She spent a greater portion of her life in this vicinity, and is survived by her husband, mother, four brothers and two sisters. The deceased was a member of the Disciple church, of this place for over thirteen years. Funeral services were conducted at the chapel at Moultrie, interment was made in the Moultrie cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knight and daughter, Elnore, were calling on Salem, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dingledy were in Alliance, Thursday.

John Senevel and brother, Joseph, have returned to Cleveland.

CHESTNUT RIDGE.

Chestnut Ridge, July 31.—Israel Steffy and family, of Brumbaugh Corners, spent Sunday evening with his brother, Adam Steffy and family.

Mrs. E. C. Hershberger was to Hartville, Monday.

Lamar and Miss Bessie Dulabahn were at Hartville, Saturday evening.

Adam Snyder, of Alliance, is a Chestnut Ridge visitor for several weeks.

H. Breckenridge was a Canton visitor, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Wymer and children, Edith, Walter and Raymond, and Mrs. Curtis Breckenridge and son, Leroy, were Middlebranch visitors, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. El Brumbaugh, Miss Lucy Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Steffy and sons, Melvin, Leon and Clarence, of Brumbaugh Corners, were guests of Frank Dulabahn and family, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ribald, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Stonemetz and Miss Nettie Fahars attended the Hartville Sunday school picnic held at Silver Lake, Thursday.

Samuel Brumbaugh was to Hartville Tuesday.

Mrs. C. F. Dulabahn and daughter, Rosella, were to Hartville, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Enos C. Hershberger, Charles and Miss Bessie May were the guests of Frank Dulabahn and family Sunday evening.

Philip Woolf was to Sumfield, Wednesday.

Albert Ribald was to Silver Lake, Tuesday.

MAGNOLIA.

Magnolia, July 31.—During an electrical storm, Sunday afternoon, the barn of Joseph Casper was struck by lightning, killing one good horse and causing two other horses to become totally deaf.

There is some daylight pilfering going on in Magnolia.

Miss Sarah O. Chaddock has returned home from Canton, where she was visiting relatives.

N. R. Reifsnider, of Canal Dover, and Miss Cleona Patterson, of Magnolia, were united in marriage by Rev. H. A. Shaffer, Thursday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Benfer. They left on the B. & O. for a brief wedding journey, after which they will reside at Canal Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Benfer arrived home, Friday evening, and were given a very pleasant repast by the Magnolia band.

Mr. and Mrs. I. R. N. Beatty, of Morris, Rhinola, were visiting in Magnolia several days this week.

Charles Philippi and family, of Canton, are spending a few days with township relatives and friends.

Dr. D. L. McIlrann was called Sunday to Denver, Col., where his daughter, Maud and family are all seriously ill.

Mrs. Kate Davis has returned home from Guernsey county, where she was visiting her relatives.

Miss Ruth Lohmiller, of Canton, was the guest of Magnolia friends this week.

About one hundred Magnolians will attend the Macabee picnic at Meyer's Lake, Saturday.

Lulu Bowman is employed in Canton as a stenographer.

Dal Shaffer returned home, Monday from Amsterdam.

Mrs. J. P. Fox is still in a very critical condition.

The National Fireproofing Company is getting ready to resume operations after a shut down of several months.

Professor H. L. Bates is at the home of his father in Cumberland, Guernsey county.

Mrs. Sarah Chaddock and her two sons, Frank and Charles, received a telegram, Wednesday, announcing the death of Lawrence A. Chaddock, at Tallman, Michigan.

F. P. and C. E. Chaddock left Wednesday from Tallman, Mich., to attend the funeral of their brother, Lawrence A. Chaddock.

RHODES.

Oat cutting is now finished. Many have begun to haul it into the barn.

Notices have been posted about the public places of the township to place effect that a petition will be presented to the trustees of Tuscarawas Township at their next meeting, August 22, in the township hall at Brookfield praying for the establishment of a public road from Myers' church west.

Two droves of Mexican Gypsies passed through our town this week en route for the river below here. They are emigrating and doing a great deal of horse trading, buying and selling while on the way.

William Thomas is still on the sick list with typhoid fever.

Frank Bennot, who has been sick for many months, is working for Joseph Ehlers of the West Side again.

Samuel Louas, H. H. Snyder, William Weiler and Charles Smith spent several days last week in Wooster.

Charles K. Swisher, S. B. of this place, a well known student in scientific circles, and a graduate of Yale, has a position as traveling manager for a leading wholesale firm of Pittsburg. He left early Monday morning for Wooster to complete the job, the last contract he will fill in that business.

The heirs of Miss Elizabeth Graber, deceased, decided to divide her personal property among themselves rather than hold a public sale.

Mrs. Harriet Obendorf, while in Massillon last week was stricken with heart trouble and had to be removed to her home. She now lies in a very critical condition.

Miss Myrtle Lantz has been working at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Hudson Sewell, of Wilmart street, who has been confined to her bed for several weeks.

Another meeting of the Heb Den Tenor Outing club is called for this week to complete the final arrangements for their outing during the week of August 10.

The M. B. C. baseball team was defeated Sunday morning by the Shaban Eagles by a 13 to 2 score.

Sunday school will be held at Myers Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m.

While attempting to lock a wagon while in motion John Hornberger lost his life from slipping beneath the wheel, the entire load crossing his instep, Tuesday.

Kaufman, who has been attending school at Valparaiso, Ind., will return home next month.

The summer school of Wooster University will close in two weeks. Many of our young folks now attending school there will then return to take up the question of re-enrolling.

John Albright, fruit grower of this place, has ordered a large lot of new trees as an addition to his already large trees. He also sold about 25 bushel of fine peaches this week.

Tish Kilgore, of Canton, was home last week.

Weller has begun to make his daily trips with roasting ears.

Sam Smith, of Navarre, was visiting at Clark Elisea Saturday.

William Hindley began to work at the Penman mine, near Greenville Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lonsa were visiting at the home of the son, Charles, of this place Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kurtz were visiting in the neighborhood this week.

Harold Smith, of Navarre, who has been the guest of Russell Elisea for several weeks, will return home tomorrow.

Mrs. B. Ownes and children, of Mansfield, who have been visiting with Mrs. H. Ploumiers, of the Patch, returned home this week.

MIDDLEBRANCH.

Middlebranch, July 31.—Corwin Bixler, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bixler and Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Spelman spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smith, of Doylestown.

David Phillips attended the Hill reunion Saturday.

Josephine Herbeck, of Canton, was a guest of Alice Glennen Sunday.

David Nargot was New Berlin caller Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rents spent Saturday and Sunday in Kent.

Mrs. Frank Dieffenbacher visited friends at Sparta and Canton several days last week.

Mrs. Lewis Roush Miss Clara Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Smith spent several days at Tiffin last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eble, of Canton, called on Dr. and Mrs. Cori Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Tesmer entertained Canton friends last week.

Miss Ruth Grimes, of Greentown, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Stahl.

Joe Mickle spent several days in Kent last week.

Miss Kate Carnes, of Canton, was a guest of Mrs. William Glennen Monday.